

April 27, 2007

Mr. Warren Buffett
Chairman
Berkshire Hathaway Company
1440 Kiewit Place
Omaha, Nebraska 68131

Dear Mr. Buffett:

I am writing on behalf of the Save Darfur Coalition to encourage Berkshire Hathaway Company to reconsider its investments in PetroChina.

The Save Darfur Coalition raises public awareness about the ongoing genocide in Darfur and mobilizes a unified response to the atrocities that threaten the lives of people throughout the Darfur region. It is an alliance of more than 180 faith-based, advocacy, and human rights organizations.

Darfur has been embroiled in a deadly conflict for over four years. Approximately 400,000 people have been killed; more than 2.5 million innocent civilians have been forced to flee their homes and now live in displaced-persons camps in Sudan or in refugee camps in neighboring countries; and some 3.5 million men, women, and children are reliant on international aid for survival. Due to the role of the government of Sudan in the perpetrating the atrocities in Darfur, the U.S. government has issued sanctions forbidding U.S. companies from doing business with Sudan.

We at Save Darfur Coalition have great respect for your leadership not only in the financial community but also as a philanthropist and humanitarian. In light of the urgent situation in Darfur, and the critical role of the oil sector in fueling the genocide, I urge you to use your leadership and your influence as the largest public PetroChina shareholder to promptly, publicly, assertively and proactively engage PetroChina and its parent company CNPC to end its support for the Government of Sudan and its genocidal activities.

If the behavior of CNPC and Sudan do not change rapidly despite your engagement (or if you chose not to engage), we call on you to sell your holdings in PetroChina.

Mr. Warren Buffett
April 27, 2007
Page 2

We believe that to keep these investments without engaging to your maximum ability as an important stakeholder, and without a commitment to divest should PetroChina/CNPC not change is:

- inconsistent with the stated corporate values of Berkshire Hathaway
- inconsistent with how Berkshire Hathaway's customers want their money invested; and
- inconsistent with the values expressed by your philanthropy, business practices, and personal integrity.

We plan to discuss our concerns about these investments with the public and media. Should you wish to discuss this further, I can be reached at the above address, or at (202) 478-6161.

We hope to hear from you.

Sincerely

David Rubenstein
Executive Director